San-Tox

FIG CASCAROS

The remedial properties of the ingredients of these tablets are too well known to require further description. As a mild, palatable, yet thoroughly effective, over-night laxative, SAN-TOX Fig Cascaros are unequalled. Children will take them willingly. If you will but give SAN-TOX Fig Cascaros a single trial, you will want to keep a box in the medicine cabinet always. Your money cheerfully refunded if you are not thoroughly satisfied. SAN-TOX Fig Cascaros and a full line of SAN-TOX Remedials and Toilet Preparations are sold by

ORDER EASTERN STAR

St. Clair County Association.

The October meeting of the St. Clair County O. E. S. Association which is the annual business meeting, was held in Masonic hall last Friday.

The weather was extremely unpropitious, heavy rain falling most of the day making it impossible for the chapters from Capac and Memphis, who wished to come by auto, to be present. For other reasons Worthy Grand Matron Miss Kenyon, of Marine City, and Worthy Grand Patron William Quackenbush, of Mt. Clemens, who were expected to be here, found it impossible.

The grand officers who attended this gathering were: Grand Chaplain, Mrs. George Jones; Grand Adah, Mrs. Halstead; Grand Sentinel, Franklin T. Moore.

About 150 members from the seven chapters of the county, including Yale, comfortably filled the hall when the meeting was called to order by Mrs. W. B. Pelkey, president of the association. During the business portion of the time, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year.

President—Mrs. Maude Jones of Memphis.

Vice-President—Mrs. Jos. Miller of Marine City.

Secretary—Miss Alice McKenzie of Yale.

Treasurer—Mrs. Edith Brink of Capac.

Marshal—Mrs. Jennie Langell of St. Clair.

Chaplain—Mrs. Abigail Stock of Port Huron.

Organist—Mrs. A. W. Carlisle of Port Huron.

The welcoming address was given by Mrs. Etta Clyne, Worthy Matron of Yale chapter, responded to by Mrs. R. G. Burwell of Port Huron.

Initiatory work was performed by officers chosen from each chapter, those from Yale being Organist Nila Holden, Esther, Mrs. Clyde Richards and Sentinel, J. L. Rosenthal. The initiation ceremonies were very beautifully gone through with and enjoyed by everyone. After this the Yale Chapter officers took their stations and gave a very pleasing floral degree.

A brief school of instruction was given by Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Halstead and Mr. Moore and later Mr. Moore, in behalf of the Association, presented Mrs. Pelkey, the retiring president, with a cut-glass creamer and sugar.

Mrs. Pelkey responded with gracious and pleasant words.

Upon the closing of the meeting all adjourned to Central hall where a fine banquet was served to appreciative appetites, and appreciative minds listened afterwards to a short program of toasts, the majority of those to whom toasts were apportioned, being absent.

Mrs. Berenice Fuller, Past Worthy Matron of Yale Chapter, very gracefully filled the position of toast mistress. She called upon Supt. N. J. Drouyor who gave an interesting talk on "The Flag." Mr. Moore, of St. Clair, spoke on "Preparedness," presenting some good points. Mrs. Fuller entitled her toast "Lest We Forget," speaking in a pleasing manner.

During the banquet an orchestra composed of Phyllis Ingram, pianist, Helen Toft, cornetist, and Ronald Toft, violinist, rendered fine music.

Despite the wet, cold weather this meeting of St. Clair County Association was declared a splendid success. The February gathering will be held with the Marine City Chapter.

Entre Nous.

The meeting of this club was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Richards.

A delicious 6 o'clock dinner was served and afterwards five hundred was played. Honors were won by Mrs. Clyne and J. A. Menzies.

The next meeting will be in two weeks with Dr. and Mrs. Clyne.

Social Gathering

The ladies club, organized by the lady teachers in our schools and including many of the young ladies of the city, but for which no name has been selected as yet, held its second social evening on Monday at the home of Jo Beard, she having as assistant hostesses Miss Roy, Miss Hubbell and Miss Whitmer.

The program for the evening's pleasure consisted of various unique hallowe'en games from which a great deal of merriment was derived. From attic to cellar several ghosts directed the steps of the wary and unwary and the traps that were laid and fallen into were many and unsuspected.

The fortune teller received her full share of attention, the ladies all wanting to know what might be coming their way.

For refreshments cider was served in tin cups and nuts and apples passed.

The rooms were charmingly trimmed with figures of witches and black cats and the usual hallowe'en attractions.

Another social evening will be held two weeks from last Monday.

Oddfellow's Banquet.

Last Friday evening a number of Oddfellows and several invited friends spent a most pleasant evening at the hall of Advance Lodge, No. 110, I. O. O. F.

About forty sat down to a long table extending the length of the hall and laden with roast pig, and edibles of all kinds.

Charley Slosser was appointed chief carver and he certainly was an expert in that line.

After all had their fill, cigars were passed and the evening until 11:00 o'clock was spent in social chat and story telling.

Advance Lodge has added many new members of late and is hustling for more.

Fifth Annual Red Tag Sale.

One of the biggest buying events of the year in Yale is Cochrane's Annual Red Tag Sale. On another page of this issue will be found an announcement of this big sale, which begins on Saturday, Oct. 28th and runs for two weeks, ending Nov. 11.

Mr. Cochrane was lucky enough to pick up a number of sensational bargains from the wholesalers and the buyers in and around Yale will have an opportunity to share the good luck with him.

There are price reductions in every line and it will pay you to take advantage of Cochrane's Red Tag Sale.

GRADE NOTES

Leon Tripp is going to move away at the end of the week.

The third graders have a good start on the maps of Yale.

Marie Wilt has moved to Detroit.

The third grade is the first to use the new store. The shelves are fully supplied with the articles found in the usual store. Come and visit them.

The fifth graders are starting map drawing of the continents.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Daniel E. Jayne, of Detroit, spent last week-end with Principal Johnson. Mr. Jayne is a student in the Detroit Medical College at present practicing in Grace hospital.

Frank McKenzie is a new enrollment in the high school and a new prospect for foot-ball.

Everyone is invited to attend the foot ball game Friday. Come and show your spirit.

Rhetorical program Friday afternoon.

Miss Ritchie spent Saturday in Brown City with her friend Miss Tanner, principal of the Brown City high school.

The Seniors are making extensive preparations for their hallowe'en party Friday evening. They are planning to make everyone have a good time. Come and see what the mysterious posters mean.

Mr. Drouyor has greatly delighted the students of the high school and high school teachers with his Thursday morning talks. A week ago Thursday he campaigned in a very able manner for Wilson, and last Thursday for Hughes. We have a promise of a speech free from partisanship for this Thursday morning which will be reported next week.

Don't fail to be present at the foot ball game with Richmond Friday afternoon.

About fifty new library books have come in.

Come and hear the Kindergarten band. The little folks are not only developing time and rhythm but really are making good music.

It is astonishing to hear the 1st graders read. One would scarcely believe that little folks could learn so many words in both print and script in so short a time.

The high school is being treated to political discussions these days.

Basket ball girls are developing surprising skill. In watching from a window last evening not to exceed twenty minutes, we actually saw the ball put into the basket.

The physiography class is now delving into the mysteries of the barometer and will soon be able to read and explain the most mysterious weather map.

The Physics class are making an extensive study of machines which they are finding very interesting. They have worked out and mastered the laws of the pendulum and falling bodies recently much to their delight and satisfaction.

The Misses Ritchie and Buck are planning to see the big game in Ann Arbor Saturday. Incidentally they may see and hear both Pat and Billy before they return.

Mr. Woodhams, now with Houghton Midlin Co., but a former teacher of many years experience spent Tuesday visiting the Yale Public Schools. He expressed himself as thoroughly delighted with what he saw and heard. He thinks Yale has just cause to be proud of her schools.

Good news of success and very enjoyable work comes from Lawrence Menerey, one of our graduates, who is now Superintendent at Roscommon.

Our graduates of last June who are now teaching in the surrounding country get home occasionally and give good reports of their work. May success attend them.

Miss McCall thinks that she will turn out some full fledged doctors from her physiology class at the rate they are going.

Miss Whitmer was up the other night to borrow the school skull and cross bones. We do not know what she is planning but we suspect that it is not matrimony.

Miss Brown is the only teacher who can really afford good shoes. She says she never found them better nor cheaper.

HOGS AND CATTLE—Will load Saturday, Nov. 4. If you have anything to sell phone or write me. 30-2 Edward Sheeby, Yale.

PREPARE THE CHILDREN FOR LATER YEARS

THERE is no more serious question for you to decide, Mr. and Mrs. Parent, than the kind of training your children are to have. In many homes education and training depend upon how much the parents can afford to spend.

What about Your Boy and Girl?

Will Willie have to forego his dreams of being a civil engineer, or will Mary be deprived of the musical training she has been looking forward to? Will they be compelled after school years are passed to take their places with the underpaid men and women, untrained, without a vocation?

Plan now, when they are young. Bank your money—or better still, deposit a little to their credit in this bank regularly, and when the time comes there will be no necessary "skimping" to start them off right.
